E X H I B I T

52

From:

Marjorie Denise Dimsdale

To:

Brian Kooy

Date:

5/29/2007 4:32 PM

Subject:

Re: Fwd: Library Reserves

CC:

ekelsey1@student.gsu.edu

Hi Brian and Prof. Kelsey,

We interpret the situation described below as fair use, so he should not need to obtain copyright permission. —Denise

Denise Dimsdale Library Media and Reserves Coordinator libridd@langate.gsu.edu 404-651-4332 For ERes please send correspondence to libreserves@langate.gsu.edu

>>> Brian Kooy 5/29/2007 3:49 PM >>> Hi Denise,

Do you know the answer to the question asked below? I think the answer is probably that he does not need to obtain copyright clearance, but I thought I'd ask you to see if you have any insights into the issue.

Thanks Brian

Brian K. Kooy Liaison Librarian to Philosophy, Religious Studies and Modern & Classical Languages Georgia State University Library 404-463-9941

Brian,

I'm going to be teaching this summer, and I need to put some articles from a book I own on reserve. I've read the instructions available on the GSU Library website, but I want to clarify something. I own a book that is a collection of essays. I want to place on reserve just five pages worth of this book. The book is rather large, so I'm definitely not putting more than 20% of the book on reserve. However, despite the fact that I am only using five pages, these five pages will include one entire article and snippets from two other articles. Still, I will NOT need to obtain copyright permission, correct?

Thanks, Ben Kelsey

